History of Ogden

Ogden Union Church

The Ogden Union Church at 13th and Elm was started in 1910. On August 16, 1910, J.A. and Isabella Hubert sold to Lena R. Honey, Mrs. Ed Dyche, Mrs. Gertrude Schermerhorn, trustees of the Union Home Missionary Society and their successors, Lot 2, block 29 in the City of Ogden, for the sum of $60.00. On that same day Leon R, Honey, Mrs. Ed Dyche, Mrs. Gertrude Schermerhorn as trustees of the Union Missionary Society and their successors sold the same lot to William Sigegle, R.H. Hudspeth, James Wood, J.C. Frey and C.J. Cook, trustees of the Ogden Union Church and their successors, for the sum of $1.00. Both of the deeds were witnessed by Theo Weichselbaum and were recorded on September 17, 1910 by Greg Hungerford, County Clerk.
