Why I Love my City

Why do I love my city? In my opinion, West Point City is the greatest city I could ever ask for. West Point is a safe place, has an extraordinary environment, and has many helpful people.

Why do I love my city? Easy! West Point is a safe community for everyone. Alike, or different. My city has friendly, nonthreatening residents. Something to follow on that, I know almost all the people in my neighborhood. So I am safe all over this city. Everyone is safe in West Point city!

Why do I love my city? Well I don't know about you, but I think West Point has an outstanding environment. I love going to parks and fields or simply anywhere because it's litter free. West Point cares about the environment. Plus, there are many trails. You can ride bikes, jog, or just explore and look at the worlds natural beauty. West Point is a great place to live. Especially if you love a clean environment.

Why do I love my city? Well there are so many helpful people. Our neighbors, our workers, pretty much everyone! There are so many things that go one in West Point. Such as the Fourth of July celebration. (That's one of my favorites.) And everyone loves to participate. I know many people in West Point, and all of them are such helpful and friendly people.

So, why do I love my city? In my opinion, West Point is an amazing city. It is a safe place, has a wonderful environment, and has many helpful people. That, is why I love my city.
