NOTICE:

All documents and information listed in the attached checklist for the approval requested must be submitted with this application or the application is incomplete. Please attach legal description of property.

The Planning Commission normally meets on the third Thursday of each month. Applicants will be notified of changes in meetings and meeting times. The Planning Staff will not officially accept a submittal until the conditions and necessary parts of each application procedure are completed. The Planning Commission will not review any submittal that was made less than 20 business days (3rd Thursday of previous month) prior to the scheduled meeting. Submittals are placed on a tentative agenda until necessary staff review has been completed.

I affirm that I have read and understand this application and that all representations made and material submitted with this application are true and correct to the best of my knowledge. The signature given below is certification that the owners of record have knowledge of and consent to the filing of this application and supporting data.

Applicant's Signature Date

(Owner's signature must be authorized if not submitting application in person)

*MUST state reason for requesting a re-zone request or amendment to the existing Code or General Plan.

The following are the county requirements for Conditional Use Permit approval:

- 1) Upon receipt of all required fees and information for any specific step of the review procedure, the Planning Director and other members of the Technical Review Committee, shall review the application for completeness and compliance with the provisions of this Code and other pertinent County regulations. When the Planning Director determines that the application is ready for Planning Commission review, the Planning Director will docket the application for review at the next regularly scheduled public meeting of the Planning Commission. Incomplete applications shall not be docketed for Planning Commission review.
- 2) The applicant must follow the general standards for Conditional Use Developments as set forth in Article 2-2-100 of the New Code. Applications requiring a site plan need to follow requirements as set forth in Article 2-2-110 of the New Code, entitled "Site Plan Review."
- 3) Once completed applications and all required documentation are received by the deadline (refer to the schedule for submission deadline), the Planning Director will set the application as an agenda item for discussion at the Planning Commission meeting. After the application is determined to be complete, the Zoning Administrator shall schedule a public meeting before the Planning Commission as provided in Section 2-2-050 of Article 2 of the New Code. RECOMMEND OR DENY. The Planning Commission shall hold a public hearing regarding an application. After due consideration the Planning Commission shall approve, approve with conditions, or deny the application pursuant to the standards set forth in Section 2-2-100 (F) of the New Code.
- 4) After recommendation from the Planning Commission is received, and review is complete by the County Attorney, the applicant will be placed on the County Commission agenda to appear and shall answer any questions and if required negotiate any required bond or financial security. The County Commission shall either approve or reject the conditional use permit and upon approval shall authorize the County Recorder to record said permit and any of the approved material. The costs of recording shall be paid by the applicant.

The following are the county requirements for subdivision approval:

- 1) Conceptual review (Article 6-1-120) A concept plan shall be required of all subdividers. Concept plan review provides the subdivider with an opportunity to consult with and receive assistance from the County regarding the regulations and design requirements applicable to the proposed subdivision of property. A concept plan shall be drawn to scale not smaller than 100 feet to the inch, and shall show a north arrow. The subdivider shall submit three (3) copies 24x36: and (1) copy 11'x17' of the proposed subdivision concept plan drawn to scale to the County Community Development Department. Before scheduling of the concept plan for review by the Planning Commission, the Community Development Department must receive letters from the entities providing water, sewer or septic tank, or fire suppression indicating there are no major problems with providing services to the development. A Public Hearing shall be scheduled before the Planning Commission for concept review/acceptance. The subdivider shall pay an application fee as provided in the Fee Schedule for concept review.
- 2) Preliminary plan filing/approval (Article 6-1-130) The purpose of the preliminary plat is to require formal preliminary approval of a subdivision as provided herein in order to minimize changes and revisions which might otherwise be necessary on the final plat. The preliminary plat and all information and procedures relation thereto shall in all respects, be in compliance with the provisions of this Code and any other applicable County Ordinances. All required documentation shall be submitted at least twenty (20) business days (refer to submission deadline schedule) prior to the Planning Commission meeting. The subdivider shall pay an application fee as provided in the Fee Schedule for preliminary review. The Planning Commission shall review the submitted preliminary plat and determine compliance with the standards and criteria set forth in this Subdivision Ordinance and all other ordinance of Box Elder County. The Planning Commission may approve, approve subject to modification, or disapprove the submitted preliminary plat, and shall make findings specifying any inadequacy in the application, non-compliance with County regulations, questionable or undesirable design and/or engineering, and the need for any additional information which may assist the Planning Commission to evaluate the preliminary plat.
- 3) Final Subdivision Approval (Planning Commission) After the petitioner has received preliminary subdivision approval from the Planning Commission and development is in compliance with the provisions of the subdivision ordinance, the subdivider shall file an application for final plat approval with the County Community Development Department on a form prescribed by the County (refer to the schedule for submission deadline), together with three (3) copies of the proposed final plat and three (3) copies of the construction drawings. At the same time, the subdivider shall pay to the County the application fee for the subdivision as set forth in the Fee Schedule
- 4) Final Subdivision Approval (Box Elder County Commission)
- 5) County Recording

Zoning text and map amendments shall be considered and processed as provided in this subsection. (Article 2-2-080)

1. An application shall be submitted to the Zoning Administrator in a form established by the Administrator along with any fee established by the County’s schedule of fees. The application shall include at least the following information:
 - a. The name, address and telephone number of the applicant and the applicant’s agent, if any;
 - b. The names of all owners of the subject property;
 - c. The requested amendment and reasons supporting the request; and
 - d. If the proposed amendment requires a change in the zoning map, the application shall include:
 - 1) An accurate property map showing present and proposed zoning classifications; and all abutting properties showing present zoning classifications.
 - 2) An accurate legal description and an approximate common address of the area proposed to be rezoned.
 - e. If the proposed amendment requires a change in the text of this Code, the application shall include chapter and section references and a draft of the proposed text.
2. After an application is determined to be complete, the Zoning Administrator may prepare a staff report evaluating the application.
3. The Planning Commission shall review the application and shall thereafter submit its recommendation for approval, approval with modifications, or denial thereof to the County Commission.
4. Following receipt of a recommendation from the Planning Commission, the County Commission may hold a public hearing on the application as provided in Section 2-2-050 of this Chapter and in the Utah Open and Public Meetings Act. Following a public hearing, and after due consideration, the County Commission may approve, approve with modifications, or deny the proposed amendment.
