

Lone Star Quiltworks Shop Talk April 2011

We have seen a few bluebonnets on the highway! They are sparse and quite few but if you look REALLY hard you can see a couple. Not finding any? Come to the shop and see all the great bluebonnet fabric we have in stock.

This will be a very short newsletter as I have probably bored you to tears with too many frequent emails as of late. Mostly, I just want to tell you about a couple of new products in the shop, and let you know what our April specials will be.

For those of you who have been waiting for Camelot from In the Beginning it is here! We just received backup bolts for the two main prints. If you have not seen this line be certain to ask for it when you visit. It is a very different look for sure but quite beautiful.

Do you machine quilt with your domestic sewing machine? If you are tired of using safety pins to hold everything together, and frustrated with wrestling them around near your machine foot we have a new product for you to try. They are called Pinmoors. Basically, they are a reusable little rubber stopper that you can remove when you come to the pin. At first look I thought, oh yeah, just another gadget, but then I tried them and I really like them. Yes, but we quilters like gadgets you say!

If you missed Arlene Sachitano being here for our book signing weekend, I wanted to let you know that we now have her books in stock. As a matter of fact they are all signed by her! What a great gift for that special quilting friend. Her current series contains four books and we have them all at the shop. Great mysteries surrounded by quilting tidbits.

Our April specials are as follows, 20% off of all quilting patterns, knitting notions, knitting books, and knitting needles, and 50% off of all in stock yarn. All sales will be final on the yarn. No returns, refunds, or exchanges will be accepted.

Signups are continuing for our July Quilters Quest Shop Hop Bus Trip, and our February 2012 Royal Caribbean Cruise. Spaces are limited for both, so if you are on the fence please let us know your decision soon. For information go to our website at www.lonestarquiltworks.com. Both trips and all the info you will need are listed there.

That's all folks. Hope you have a great April. Pray for rain, we sure do need it. Terry
