

LSQW Countdown to Move Sale

Sew.....many of you know that I always focus on the weather at the start of my emails. Well, last Thursday, May 12th we finally got a little rain. Not as much as we might have liked, however, enough to at least dampen down the dirt.

May 12th was a record day for another reasonI signed a new lease for us to move our current location next door to the old Red Cross space! Many of you know that I have been working on this since December. I am so excited about all of the new space we will have. Our current square footage will increase from 2800 to 6000 square feet, with wonderful opportunities for more fabric, more BabyLock machines, more classes, and special out of town teachers.

Currently we are in the process of remodeling, including taking down walls to open up the space as much as possible. We will have a dedicated kit cutting room and a much bigger fabric storage area. We are double and triple checking the air conditioning units, installing brighter lighting, and having hot water run to the bathrooms and kitchen area. For those of you who visit us from out of town we will have a Man Cave where your dedicated “drivers” can sit and rest. Whew! I am tired already.

We will be closed on Saturday, June 18th for our actual move. Our current location will stay open through Friday, June 17th. We will reopen on Tuesday, June 21st at 10 AM in the new space!

Sew....what is the worst part of all of this? Well the moving part of course! And we just have to incorporate a sale for you don't we? Let's be honest, if you buy something before we move that is one less thing we have to pick up and physically move ☺

As an extra incentive to help us “lighten” our load we will be having a progressive sale. We are calling this our Countdown to Move sale. Starting on Tuesday, May 24th and going thru Friday, June 17th we will be having a decreasing discount sale on all of our fabric. I have inserted a chart below to show your savings. A minimum one yard cut is required to receive this discount, however, feel free to buy as much as you would like !!

Tues 5/24	28%
Wed 5/25	27%

As you can easily see, the earlier you come visit us, the deeper the discount. I want to repeat that you must purchase a one yard cut to receive this discount. Sale may not be combined with any other store offers, however, we will have a few “hot” deals posted throughout different areas of the store.

Sew....grab a buddy and head for the shop. We again are trying to keep our out of town customers in mind by announcing this sale ahead of time. Don't forget that it does not start until Tuesday, May 24th!

Well, I hope you are as excited about this as we are at the shop. We will have a combination Grand Reopening & 6 Year Anniversary Blowout a little later on. We would like to get moved and comfortable with our new space prior to doing this.

I want to thank all of you for being loyal customers to the shop. I also want to thank all of my employees. I would not be able to take this great expansion leap without all of you. My goal still is, and always will be to have the absolute best quilt and fabric shop in the Brazos County area. And don't forget we are just moving next door!

Hope you all have a wonderful day. I am going to close again by saying to please pray for rain. Maybe if all of the quilters in Texas just THINK about rain it will happen.....Terry
