Travel 'n Style

Part of the pleasure of any trip is the preparation and anticipation. With beautiful accessories the statement that you are making is organized and prepared for any travel adventure. Using the Travel 'n Style embroidery designs by Vicki Tracy, we will create and embellish a beautiful travel pouch. Tuck it inside your luggage, carry it as an evening clutch, or make it in multiples to give as gifts. You will love the process and be amazed at all the possibilities of the interchangeable elements in this premium embroidery collection.

Creativity Journal

The personal nature of a journal is an invitation to make a custom cover, expressing the taste, style and creativity of the author and artist who fills its blank pages. This felted journal cover is heavily textured and starts with a layer of needle-punched multi-colored fibers. The next layer has simple stitches with a scattering of beads, buttons, and trinkets added for interest and fun! The finishing touch is a rattail cord couched along the outer edges.
