Speaker

Michael D. Gooch,
RN, MSN, ACNP-BC, FNP-BC, CFRN, CEN, NREMT-P

Michael brings over 16 years of nursing and EMS experience to MED-ED's seminars and also holds the role of Lead Nurse Planner in the development, implementation and organizational compliance of its educational offerings. He has worked in a variety of clinical settings that range from emergency nursing and primary care to a Level I Trauma Center and includes ground and air medical transport. Michael received his MSN from Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tennessee where he focused on emergency and trauma care as an Acute Care Nurse Practitioner and also completed his Post-Master's Family Nurse Practitioner at Vanderbilt. He has presented on numerous topics across North America and serves as an instructor for many certification courses. Michael is employed as a Flight Nurse for Vanderbilt University Medical Center's LifeFlight and is an Emergency Nurse Practitioner with TeamHealth at Maury Regional Medical Center in Columbia, Tennessee. He is also an Instructor of Nursing at Vanderbilt University's School of Nursing. As a past member of TN-1 DMAT (Disaster Medical Assistance Team), a part of the National Disaster Medical Systems, Michael has been involved in disaster relief efforts on several levels including Hurricanes Katrina and Rita.

MED-ED reserves the right to substitute an equally qualified speaker.

Course Description

This course is a review of emergency nursing designed to assist the participant to be successful in obtaining CEN certification. The course offers lectures, graphics, videos and practice questions in many of the areas that are tested on the CEN examination. This review will provide not only a knowledge base for successfully completing the exam, but also a foundation for further study as the participant works towards emergency nursing certification.
