Pam Buda

www.heartspunquilts.com

Pam Buda has sewn nearly all of her life, and began quilting in 1997. She designs original, traditional styled quilts for her company, Heartspun Quilts, and is the designer/creator of the Prairie Women's Sewing Circle club, featuring small reproduction style quilts, and historic anecdotal stories of life in early America c. 1840-1900. Pam has expanded her interests and is designing fabric for Marcus Brothers Textiles. She loves to teach and travel, giving lectures and workshops to quilt guilds and quilt shops all over the U.S. Pam lives in a suburb of Chicago with her husband Ed, daughter Nicole, son Ryan, and their Yorkie, Bella.

Lynne Hagmeier

Lynne Hagmeier began quilting more than 20 years ago after taking a class at her local quilt shop. In 2000, Lynne took the next step and partnered with Moda Fabrics to design fabric collections based on her signature warm, country colors and nature-inspired motifs. Lynne and her husband, Robert, shared their passion for quilting by hosting retreats at KTQ's home base in Bennington, Kansas. She travels to quilt shops and guilds teaching classes and sharing her quilts and their stories with quilters all over the country. Lynne has designed and written a series of six Quilter's Journal quilt patterns based on historical events, more than two dozen books and 75 patterns, and 30 fabric collections to date. She's looking forward to many more years of creating cozy, comfortable quilts using simple techniques and beautiful KTQ fabrics. Lynne is a wife, mom, gramma & quilter—not necessarily in that order. Her and her husband, Robert, have 6 grown children & 8 grandkids. Her busy life is centered around family, business, and their mutual love for all things old. <http://www.ktquilts.com>
