Laura's Corner

As the owner of the shop I take great pride in meeting the needs of my customers, and look forward to serving all your sewing needs. We offer a variety of education opportunities including our exclusive KNOW YOUR JANOME CLUB. I have sewn with Janome for 20 years and look forward to sewing with them for another 20 years. They are a dependable quality machine and have something to offer everyone. Beyond Janome we teach quilting, machine embroidery, and general sewing classes to all ages. Got Kids? Check out our summer camps. We look forward to Sewing with you soon!

Back Page Story Headline

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their calendars for a
