Friday, July 31, 2015 – Depart Reagan National on United #4373 at 6:59pm to Newark for United #108 at 9:55pm to Edinburgh.

Saturday, August 1, 2015 – We will arrive in Edinburgh at 9:45am where we will meet our driver/guide in the arrivals hall of the airport. We will stop for some tea & scones and a chance to stretch our legs before we begin our journey. Our first visit will be Stirling Castle. Stirling Castle is one of Scotland's most historically important sites and was once a favored residence of the Stewart kings and queens who held grand celebrations at the castle. We will spend the next two nights in the bustling town of Pitlochry, the gateway to the Highlands.

Overnight: Fisher's Hotel, Pitlochry, Scotland (D)

Sunday, August 2, 2015 – After breakfast we will drive to Fort Augustus where we will take a cruise on the famous Loch Ness. The crew will provide factual commentary as the cruise takes us through the local and natural history of the area. To ensure a Loch Ness cruise experience full of that famous Nessie intrigue...they will also give you a presentation using hi tech Sonar equipment to show live images of what lurks in the waters beneath...On the way back to Pitlochry we will drive through Glencoe, Scotland's most famous and most scenic Highland glen. We'll stop at the visitor centre to learn more about the mountains and the natural history of Glencoe, and the events which led to the infamous massacre of 1692.

Overnight: Fisher's Hotel, Pitlochry, Scotland (B, D)

Monday, August 3, 2015 – Before beginning our drive to Glasgow we will tour Edradour Distillery, world renowned as the smallest traditional distillery in Scotland and arguably the most unique. Dating back to 1825, Edradour, stands alone as the last stronghold of handmade single malt whisky from a farm distillery still in production today. Once in Glasgow our driver will take us on an introductory tour of the city before we check-in to our hotel.

Overnight: Carlton George Hotel, Glasgow, Scotland (B)

Tuesday, August 4, 2015 – This morning we will take a short trip to Edinburgh where a local will guide us on a tour of Edinburgh. The tour will conclude after our visit to Edinburgh Castle. No visit to Edinburgh is complete without a visit to Edinburgh Castle, and once we have ventured up to the highest parts of Edinburgh Castle's structure, we will be overwhelmed by the spectacular views of Edinburgh afforded from this Scottish "Castle of Castles". There will be plenty of free to enjoy the city before returning to Glasgow. Dinner will be on our own this evening.

Overnight: Carlton George Hotel, Glasgow, Scotland (B)

Wednesday, August 5, 2015 – Today we will say good bye to Scotland as we journey on to England. As we journey towards the Lake District, we will stop to see a section of Hadrian's Wall. Designated UNESCO World Heritage Site, Hadrian's Wall is one of England's greatest landmarks. Hadrian's Wall leaves a lasting impression on any who visit, including writer George RR Martin who used it as inspiration for his own Wall in the bestselling books and hit TV series, Game of Thrones. The best-preserved frontier of the Roman Empire and the nation's finest Roman monument, great stretches of the Wall remain intact in Northumberland. We'll enjoy an evening cruise on Lake Windermere before dinner at our hotel.

Overnight: The Waterhead Hotel, Ambleside, England (B, D)

Thursday, August 6, 2015 – Today we will go to Wales where we will tour the World Heritage Site, Conway Castle, a medieval royal castle, on the north coast of Wales. It was built between 1283 and 1289 during King Edward I's second campaign in North Wales as one of the fortresses in his 'iron ring' of castles to contain the Welsh. This afternoon enjoy free time in the seaside resort town of Llandudno, Wales. Take a stroll down the elegant Victorian Pier stretching half a mile out into the Irish Sea. With stunning views from every angle it is a must-see when visiting the charming town of Llandudno. Enjoy the spectacular sight of Llandudno bay with the mountainous backdrop, a view exclusive to the pier, so make sure you make it right to the end to enjoy the best views of Llandudno, the Great Orme and Little Orme. We'll meet up for dinner at our hotel tonight.

Overnight: The Imperial Hotel, Llandudno, Wales (B, D)

Friday, August 7, 2015 – This morning we will enjoy more of the Welsh countryside as we take a scenic ride on Welsh Highland Railway through Snowdonia National Park. We will depart Wales and return to England for the remainder of our tour. Tonight we will have dinner at our hotel in Birmingham where we will spend the next two nights.

Overnight: Jurys Inn, Birmingham, England (B, D)

Saturday, August 8, 2015 – Today we attend The Festival of Quilts in Birmingham! Non-quilters can enjoy a free day in Birmingham. Dinner is on our own this evening, but perhaps plan to meet at the hotel pub for a drink and recap our day.

Overnight: Jurys Inn, Birmingham, England (B)

Sunday, August 9, 2015 – Our first stop today will be Stratford-upon-Avon. We will be led on a lively, entertaining and interesting, guided town walk which is a great way to explore Stratford, its history, attractions and fascinating relationship with William Shakespeare. We will spend tonight in Bath, a city so beautiful and special that it has been designated a World Heritage site. Bath was founded upon natural hot springs. We'll visit the Roman Baths, constructed around 70 AD as a grand bathing and socializing complex, it is now one of the best preserved Roman remains in the world.

Overnight: Abbey Hotel, Bath, England (B,D)

Monday, August 10, 2015 – After breakfast this morning we begin making our way to London for our final two nights. Our first stop along the way will be Stonehenge, one of the wonders of the world and the best-known prehistoric monument in Europe.

Our next stop will be Windsor Castle, an official residence of The Queen and the largest occupied castle in the world. A Royal home and fortress for over 900 years, the Castle remains a working palace today. Our driver will take us for an orientation tour of London in the coach before checking-in to our hotel. Tonight will be free to enjoy one on the many wonderful restaurants London has to offer.

Overnight: Apex Temple Court, London, England (B)

Tuesday, August 11, 2015 – This morning we will tour the Tower of London, one of just four UNESCO World Heritage Sites in the city, and one of the city's most popular attractions. Used variously throughout its history as a royal palace, an armoury, a prison, an execution chamber, a zoo, a barracks and a jewel house, this working royal castle offers a stunning insight into 1,000 years of history. The remainder of the day will be free to visit museums, shop, or perhaps take in a show.

Overnight: Apex Temple Court, London, England (B)

Wednesday, August 12, 2015 – After breakfast we will travel to London Heathrow for our return flight home. United #919 at 12:00pm to Dulles non-stop, arriving at 3:20pm (B)
