

Peaceable Notions

August 14, 2014

A weekly newsletter by Lois Weissberg, Peace & Applique Quilt Store, Rochester, IL

What a pleasant week this has been here in central Illinois. Not so in other parts of the country, though. We need to count our blessings once again for pleasant temperatures and rain, but not too much. And tomatoes ripening on the vine! My Dad always said that was the nectar of the Gods and I believe it to be true. I love fresh tomatoes!

First off, today I saw some of the projects for the Anita Goodesign's Workshop that will be this Saturday afternoon from 2-3:30. It's going to be a lot of fun, and the demos will be terrific, I promise! There will be a video presentation along with a demo of one of the projects highlighted. Then you get a CD with those projects! And rumor has it there will be special pricing on those products for those attending the class. The class fee is $20, and we promise you'll love it. There are just a couple of spots left, so be sure to get your name in quickly.

Also on Saturday, Sharon will be teaching the Yellow Brick Road quilt from 9-1. There's nothing like keeping the shop busy all day! I think there are a couple of spaces in that class, so call the shop tomorrow to find out what is needed. The class fee is $20, and a pattern is required.

I may as well go through the rest of the schedule, right? On Monday, August 18, it's Crazy Quilters from 10-12.

Thursday, August 21, there's an BERNINA Embroidery Mastery Class from 6-9.

Jill's Sit 'n Sew is Wednesday, August 27, from 20-12, and Thursday, August 28, from 6:30-8:30.

And then it's LABOR DAY ON SEPTEMBER 1.
Of course we are closed in honor of this day.
And summer is officially over.

Coming up that week is Dawn's Sit 'n Stitch on Tuesday, September 2, from 10-12.

Fifth Saturday Challenge is Saturday, September 6, at 10:30. The challenge this time was a mystery quilt. Mine is done and is just waiting to be quilted. I'm really excited about trying some new quilting motifs on it on my wonderful Bernina 710. It'll be so much fun. And the pattern was spectacular!

We still have some openings for the Camp Cilca Annual Fall Camp on Friday, September 12 - Sunday, September 14. In a rustic setting with trees all around, it's a perfect way to start the Fall season. Call the shop to reserve your spot. It's only $165, and that includes all your meals, lots of laughter, and sewing!

One other special class coming up is Sharon's Liberty Star on Saturday, September 20, from 9-1. It's another good class that you won't want to miss.

Among the new arrivals at the shop is an encore presentation of The Very Hungry Caterpillar. What a great line of fabric that is, and so much fun to use for that special child. That's one book that my grandchildren really loved, and I'm sure you know of someone who enjoyed it also. Come get yours before it's gone.

We also received fabric for the Disney movie Frozen. What a popular movie that is, and now is the perfect time to make a quilt using that line.

We also got some of Jo Morton's Haberdashery.

I think that's it for tonight. Gretchen is getting ready for the quilt retreat at Villa Maria this weekend, and has some really great plans for it. Linda continues to freshen up the shop, rearranging and organizing. She's a wonder!

I've got to get back to finishing my UFOs but I've sure had fun with that mystery quilt. I guess it's okay to do something new. I'm going to start putting together blocks from my 75th birthday, so that will be the next UFO.

As always, thanks for your friendship and support, and we hope to see you soon. Keep those needles flying, and enjoy this mild summer.
