

2014 - Independence Day Parade Rules and Regulations

- Responsible parties and participants in the parade must act in an appropriate manner during the parade and at any events related to the celebration that you may be participating in.
- All parties must agree to not engage in any activity that is dangerous or likely to cause harm, injury or damage to person(s) or property of others.
- As a condition of being a participant in the Parade, you agree to assume full responsibility for your conduct and activities of entry and to indemnify and hold West Bountiful City and the Parade committee harmless from any liability, claim, loss or expense (including attorney fees) caused.
- Applicant for Entry must provide a detailed description in their applications including but not limited to the type of entry, amount of space the entry will need (width and length in feet), how many individuals will be participating in the entry, if sound will be used, if items will be distributed( candy, flyers, coupons, etc), name of entry, etc.
- Items that are distributed throughout the parade route should be passed out by walkers along side of the entry and not thrown into the crowd or left in the street of the parade route.
- Nothing should be done involving your entry that would encourage spectators to approach the entry and go into the parade procession.
- All Equestrian entries must provide their own pooper-scoopers and wheelbarrow to follow their unit through the parade route and properly dispose of the waste after the parade.
- Walkers should be at least 10 years old or accompanied by an adult.
- Water for the participants of your entry should be available and provided by the responsible party of the entry as well as any other needs that individuals may have that involved in your entry.
- Participants will maintain their assigned position in the parade and not double back along the parade route or pass other entries unless instructed to do so by parade officials.
- Proper spacing between entries must be maintained at 20-30 feet and must refrain from doing routines that would cause large gaps to be created in the parade. Entertainment provided must be conducive to keeping the parade flowing.
- Responsible parties of the entry must adhere to the instructions of parade officials.
- Responsible party of Entry must check the box on the parade application agreeing to these terms and conditions or your entry will not be accepted.