Featuring:

Judy Hansen, Designer, Teacher &
Owner of the Quilt Shop of DeLand, FL

Maria Pate, Designer & Teacher, Leavenworth, KS

Judy Hansen's passion for art and all things sewing has led her to a place in her life that is full of both! Owning the Quilt Shop of DeLand, has been her absolute joy! Judy's other accomplishments include, authoring 3 books on quilting & over 75 patterns. She enjoys her relationship with Fabri-Quilt, PaintBrush Studio, designing fabric: Bella Flora & Radiance, Christmas Memories I & II, Christmas Traditions, Garden Whimsy & Nite Owls, & Nutcracker Christmas for 2014. She has been a guest instructor on the Fons & Porter, Love of Quilting PBS program. Teaching her original Quilt designs for the Garden Whimsy Quilt & Nite Owls are quilts included in the spring issues of the 'Love of Quilting' magazine. Judy self produced a Free Motion Quilting DVD for beginners. Judy LOVES teaching on cruises! She puts the FUN in first, with great projects and creative designs!

Maria Pate resides in Kansas with her three furry children and husband of 20 years. She began sewing when she was seven and was bitten by the quilting bug in 1996. Since then she has been designing and writing quilt patterns, enjoys teaching and speaking for guilds about her quilting journey, works as a Project Manager for Meadows Quilting & Sewing in Leavenworth, Kansas and is also an award-winning longarm quilter. She opened her quilting business, Airborne Heirlooms, in 2007 and hasn't looked back. Maria consults and designs for Fabri-Quilt and their Paintbrush Studio division and also designs for Anthology Fabrics. She has written over 150 patterns to include Block of the Month programs for Windham Fabrics, patterns for Fons & Porter, Keepsake Quilting, Craftsy, and designs and writes exclusive shop patterns for shop owners to help promote specific fabric collections. She believes there is a quilter in all of us and loves sharing her knowledge and love of quilting with everyone she meets.
