Deuteronomy means "second law." The promises and demands of the covenant is reinterpreted in terms that would be more easily understood by all Israelites. Deuteronomy is the final book of the division of the Old Testament described as The Law.

5 Deuteronomy (Mosaic #15)

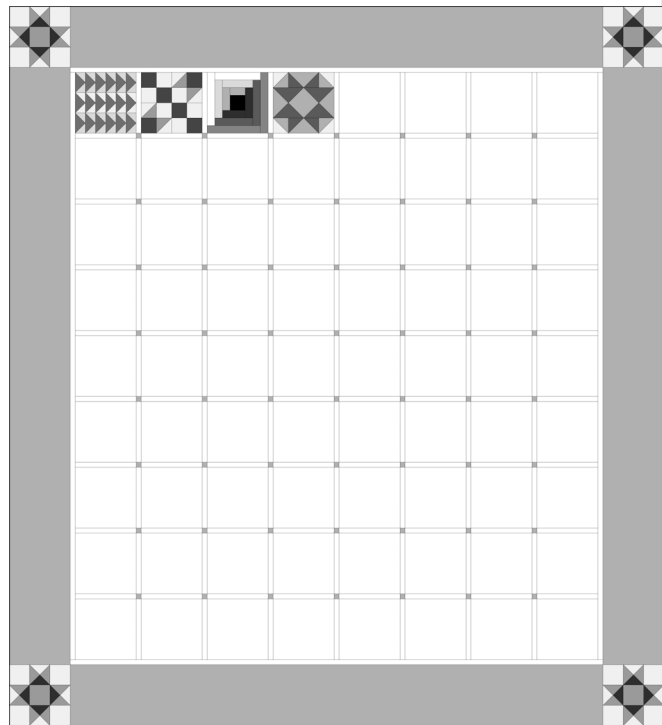

This is Block 1 of a 73 block series representing the 39 books of the Old Testament, 7 books of the Apocrypha, and 27 books of the New Testament. I chose to name the blocks after books of the Bible as a testament to my faith. I call the finished quilt “Bible Studies.” Whether Catholic or Protestant, I hope each block will have a special meaning to the quilt maker. For me, reviewing the books of the Bible recalled many of my favorite bible stories and passages. I include a bit of Bible history for each block. I have used, as a reference, the New Oxford Annotated Bible with the Apocrypha, Revised Standard Version, 1977, an Ecumenical Study Bible. The lap quilt shown at right is one of three possible settings for the Bible Studies blocks. In this setting, Genesis is constructed (4) times for the outer border cornerstones.

Instructions, continued

- Construct the top and bottom sections by stitching a half-square unit from Step 1 to each side of a flying geese unit from Step 3. Press  toward the half-square.

- Stitch the top and bottom sections to the center section, as shown above, to complete the block. Press seams open.

The Old Testament is divided into three sections: the Law, the Prophets, and the Writings. The first five books, Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers and Deuteronomy make up the Law. The first 11 chapters of Genesis deal mainly with God's plan, and the remaining chapters tell the stories of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Throughout these generations, the oral tradition consistently affirms that the only true God is the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.
