Letters From Home.....$19.95

Pat Bedont

each month

Letters Home is a story about Lizzy and Ian who come from Europe in 1840 to the United States. The story ties together the fabrics and pattern of the quilt with the couple's journey, trials and struggles in the 1840's. The inner pieced border represents the outline of a postage stamp. The four stars in the final border represent the North Star that can be seen from anywhere in the world. Even if Lizzy and Ian are not always together they can see the North star which keeps them closer in their hearts. Each month for 12 months hear another chapter in the story and take time to cut and sew each block for this beautiful 84" square quilt. Choose from two colors of borders.
