WHERE WILL YOU SEE US THIS SPRING?

So there might be something you find missing as you attend the Spring tour of quilt shows, or the Creative festivals....US!! We've made a bold leap and have decided to stay a little closer to home. As much as we enjoyed the shows, the people, the visiting...it's time for us to slow down a little.

There will still be new and exciting patterns, kits and products coming out of The Quilt Patch, you will just have to find them on our website, our Facebook page, our blog, or an e-newsletter rather than at a show. Keep in touch with us in one or all of these ways and you will always know what's new, as soon as we know!!

You will see us at the Moose Jaw show April 25 and 26, and at International Quilt Market May 15, 16 and 17

Want something and don't see it on our website? Call or drop an email - we will help you find what you need and pop it in the mail for you!

Curious about an event, drop an email, we can fill you in!

Want to know what's big and upcoming in June? Can't tell you that, it's top secret!

Need help with one of our patterns? Call - we are always here to walk you through a problem.

Happy Spring!
