Country Traditions CEO
Leslie

Oh, what a long, "strange" winter we have had with very little snow.

I saw my first robin today, which means the tulips will be starting to peek up out of the ground. Ahh, I hope Spring is on it's way! The season of fresh, new beginnings & special celebrations! Here at Country Traditions we are greeting Spring with bolts and bolts of "New" fabric lines.

Each line is blooming with color, texture, and wonderful designs. This year the holiday fabrics seem to be arriving much earlier than usual. It's never too early to start thinking about your holiday projects, so be sure to check out the fabric swatches in the next few pages. This way you can plan your Christmas gifts accordingly.

Do you have "New Beginnings" to celebrate this Spring? We sure do...Not only has PFAFF released some very cool, NEW, machines for us to share with you, but the entire quarter is filled with NEW and exciting quilting fun. Make sure you come in and check them out.

In April we have the "Wild About Nebraska Shop Hop" to get us out and exploring the countryside. Our "NEW" Home Sweet Home Saturday Sampler will be starting on the 19th. It's designed by our own Scott Flanagan. This one is gorgeous and will only be found at Country Traditions. So don't miss out get signed up today.

May is filled with lots of fun too, starting with our Annual Back Porch Summer Sales Event. We have Linda Chaney here to showcase her NEW book, "Contain It." with a class workshop that is sure to be fun and informative. Then, it's time to spring clean our sewing rooms for the annual Ultimate Quilters' Garage Sale. We will be wrapping up the very busy month with a 5th Saturday, "Old Bag" Sale day.

June and July are just as Exciting. We will be welcoming old friends and making new ones at the AccuQuilt Let's Go Quilting Retreat in June. After that, we will be learning more about the wonderful world of Auri-fil Threads with a very special Auri-fil Thread Presentation with Alex Veronelli, Auri-fil CEO. We will be kicking off July with a "Specially Scheduled" Long Arm Retreat Event featuring none other than Sue Patten of Canada. Then, of course, it wouldn't be July without celebrating the upcoming 2014 Holiday Season with our Christmas In July Sales Event.

Can you believe we are half way through the year already? I guess time really does fly! Can't wait to see you all here this quarter! Until then, Happy Quilting!!
