May 2013

April is already gone and summer is just around the corner. Valley Center Western Days are the end of May. You can see a real rodeo, watch a parade, and have a pancake breakfast all right here in Valley Center.

Janice is going to Quilt Market in May. This one is held in Portland Oregon. The dates are May 16th – 19th. Watch your emails for sales on those days, but, we won't tell Janice what we are going to put on sale. Last week I sold the quilt stands right out from underneath the quilts so you never know what we will do.

Even though Janice will be gone on Thursday the 16th and Friday the 17th we will still have all the Sit and Sew sessions as usual.

Thanks to all of you that gave feed back on our Quilters Swap meet event. All of the suggestions were good and we will definitely be incorporating them for our next Swap Meet. We are looking at August so start thinking about what you can do without and bring to the swap meet.

Coming in May

Tuesday May 7th Vertical Row Quilt

9:30 am - 3:30 pm or 6:00 pm - 9:00 pm

This class meets once a month. We will be working on Row 3 – But it's not too late to join as each Row is its own pattern. This Vertical Row Quilt is stunning. Ours is done in blues and yellows but you can choose any two color ways to create yours. Believe me when I say this picture doesn't do it justice. The colors are so vibrant. This class will continue until all students have completed 5 rows.
