Always an avid sewist, Vanessa decided to start her own company last fall called Fabric Confetti. Originally, Fabric Confetti's designs were a new take on embroidery and fusible applique using fabric confetti to embellish and give a layered effect to the designs. However, Vanessa is now branching out and her first quilt pattern will be out early this summer. The flower designs in this quilt are based on European floral embroidery designs from the 1930s. Vanessa will be debuting her new quilt design at SCC.
