

CHANDAIL

NEEDLEWORK

Saira's Message

Hello Chandail Friends,

I hope that everyone enjoyed their holidays and managed to set aside a few hours to stitch.

As I reflect on 2013, I must thank all of my loyal customers for their enthusiasm this past year in making 2013 an amazing one! I consider this past year "the year of the NEW" - new faces that quickly became new friends, new fibers and beads to inspire creative stitching, new teachers and new classes and canvases and series! I look forward to a magnificent 2014 at Chandail.

This year Chandail will continue to focus on education for our Needlepointers. Our shop hours will be changing in order to try something new. Effective Jan 1st. 2014, Chandail will be closed on Saturdays for "regular business" and it will be reserved for classes and workshops taught by visiting teachers, private lessons, private stitching parties and for shopping by appointment only. Chandail customers can call me at (832)209-6567 to schedule an appointment to shop and receive personal assistance for canvas and thread selections. You can also call me to reserve a time for a private class or a stitching party!

Sundays will be Special too! Chandail will be open one Sunday each month to provide you with a full day to come in and get motivated to finish that WIP (work in progress) project. These special Sundays will be posted on the Chandail website, please call to reserve a space.

Stay tuned for more exciting events and news for 2014. Information, hours and important updates will be posted on our website.

In closing, I want to wish all of you a very Happy, Healthy and Prosperous New Year!

Best regards, Saira
