Thanks to Jennifer our POS system is now up and running. Among the many great features we are excited to be able to start a loyalty program for all of you. We have outlined the program on page 6. We may have some double point days or other specials so be sure to read your email

We were sorry to hear of the terrible car accident Linda Hall's husband has had. She has cancelled all of her commitments for the rest of the year. We will reschedule her when she is available again.

Mark your calendar for December 7. Our Year of Savings Sale is just around the corner. It was so much fun last year - we are printing even more coupon books for 2014. We'll have a new selection of sale fabrics, door prizes, munchies, gift with purchase, and more. We look forward to seeing you all at this event. It's our way of saying Thank You for your business and friendship.

We added some new classes for quick gift ideas. As things come in from market we may add a class or two so be sure to watch your emails.

The Scan N Cuts have begun to arrive. Jennifer has developed a great new owners class to teach you how to use your machine. See page 4 for details. You are welcome to come to the class and watch even if you don't own the machine and want to see if it's for you!

Tracy Kellen's rug hooking class has received a great response! If you want to learn rug hooking be sure to sign up soon!

The Crazy Quilters have changed their meeting date. They are now meeting in the shop on the 2nd Thursday of the month from 7-9 pm. The group works on their individual projects, shares ideas, encourages and teaches each other. They welcome new members (with or without experience). Come by and see what's going on.

Happy Thanksgiving to all.
