Snippets from Sandy

Thank you to all who attended the Dime Vintage Chic Event. I hope you all had a great time, learned a few new things, and are inspired to try something new. We are working on event planning for next year. Several customers have approached me with ideas and we’d love to have your input. If there is someone you’d like us to have, please let me know.

The holidays are fast approaching. We thought to help you get ready this year we would host a “12 Weeks of Christmas” event. Each week we are offering a class for a different project to start off your holiday gift giving. We are using the book “Simple, Fun, and Quickly Done” by Terry Atkinson. There are two projects on the list that are not in the book, but we will have the patterns for you, so you’ll only have one book to purchase. You can get the book for FREE if you register for all 12 classes. We have two different days and times to choose from. See page six for details.

Baby Lock has some great freebies with serger purchases this month. It’s a good time to put a bug in that special someone’s ear (or just buy it yourself). We love the jet air threading on the Baby Lock sergers, Now with the new Triumph we have air threading for the needles, too! There are rebates on the Destiny, as well as the multineedle, Intrepid and Valiant. October is a great month to shop for a new machine!

Join us in the shop September 30 as Baby Lock unveils the New Triumph. Watch a live Facebook presentation with us starting at 2:00. Sewing celebrities will showcase the Triumph’s features and give you an exclusive look at what makes this serger so special. There will also be a presentation on the Little Dresses for Africa. We will have some machines and fabric available to we can make dresses to donate. Come spend a fun afternoon with us!

Happy Stitching!
