

Fabric Collage Quilt

Skill Level: Confident Beginner

Instructor: Lisa Dinkelman

Class Dates: Wednesdays 11/15, 11/29, 12/6 and 12/13

Time: 1-3pm

FABRIC AND NOTION REQUIREMENTS:

Background Fabric(s):	Will be discussed at first class.
Pattern Ease or thin muslin:	Will be discussed at first class.
Steam a Seam 2:	Start with 2 yards for first class.
Floral Fabrics:	A selection of scraps, fat eights or fat quarters in as many colors and scales you can find. Start with approx. 2 yards of assorted fabrics for the first class. You can always add to it as you go, if necessary.

The amount of backing fabric, binding and batting needed to complete your quilt will depend on which pattern you choose. These requirements will be discussed during class.

BASIC SUPPLIES:

Small to medium sharp scissors (Karen K Buckley blue handled scissors are my favorite)
1 Fabric Collage Quilt Pattern by Laura Heine of Fiberworks
Sewing machine in good working order with $\frac{1}{4}$ " foot
Rotary cutter, cutting mat, and quilting ruler
Pencil or sharpie pen
Thread, scissors, pins, seam ripper, any other of your favorite notions

NOTES FOR THE FIRST CLASS:

You will not need to bring a sewing machine to the first class. Bring your assorted floral fabrics, Steam a Seam 2 and sharp scissors. If you are unsure of what fabrics will work for this project, there will be time to shop for fabrics during the first class.
